Camping

With Open Minds provides room and board for the duration of camp experiences for volunteers. Rooms are multiple-occupancy and rustic living. If you feel you have skills, experience or areas of special interest that could possibly be utilized, mark each program area with a number based on the following:

- 1—I can confidently lead and develop new ideas to keep this program interesting throughout the summer and can be a resource to others to keep this program area interesting.
- 2—I have knowledge in this area and can lead it with additional resources and guidance.
- 3—I have limited interest in this program and will help if you need me to.
